PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Mr. Nagy:

I am writing this letter to reconfirm our telephone conversation of today when we discussed the delinquency problem that we've recently experienced with your company. As I mentioned, we need to see a substantial improvement over the one hundred and twenty days in which we were recently paid for an invoice. Future invoices need to be met within terms in order for Dow to maintain Amco's open account status in the future.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter. As I mentioned, I am able to approve one new order for your account which I will monitor for timely payment. Future orders on open account will depend largely upon the results experienced with your most recent order.

Sincerely,

C. V. Bell

CERTIFIED MAIL
RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

Dear Mr. Nagy:

Confirming our telephone conversation of this date, you have been formally advised that we have not received a satisfactory response to our earlier requests for payment of your account totaling $18,067.16. Our invoice number 8980368 for $14,989.66 and our invoice number 8980376 for $3,077.50, both dated February 6, 1986 have been past due since March 8, 1986. Our records indicate that the price on these two invoices, $.29/lb. for perchloroethylene is correct and that you owe the full $18,067.16.

I have heard your contention that you were granted a special price of $.18/lb. for perchloroethylene by Mr. Kent Miller, a former Dow Sales Representative. As stated above, we have no records to support such a special price. If you have such records, please send copies along with your check to pay a potential adjusted amount of $11,034.86. We will review your copies and discuss the situation with you. If you do not have records supporting your contention of a special price, please send your check to pay the full $18,067.16.

Unless we hear from you by November 24, 1986, you will force us to turn your account over for appropriate action. We hope that this will not be necessary.

Sincerely,
